

MONEY SMART WEEK®

April 22-29, 2017 | @ your library®

The Volusia County Public Library system will host special financial programs in recognition of Money Smart Week, April 22 to 29. Registration is not required unless otherwise indicated. We thank the Friends of the Library for co-sponsoring many of these programs.

Daytona Beach Regional Library

105 E. Magnolia Ave. • 386-257-6036

Healthy eating on a budget: 11 a.m. Saturday, April 22. Reina Williams of Island Doctors will explain how to follow a nutritious diet on a low budget.

Investments 101: 1 p.m. Monday, April 24. Scott Weidman will explain how to begin an investment portfolio. Weidman is owner and president of Savannah Court Financial Advisors, a Daytona Beach financial planning firm specializing in retirement planning and investment risk management.

Financial planning for long-term care: 4 p.m. Monday, April 24. Daytona Beach attorney Michael Pyle will discuss financial planning for long-term care. He will explain the types of care covered by long-term-care insurance and investment risk management.

Grant-seeking basics for individuals: 4:30 p.m. Tuesday, April 25. This free, hands-on workshop is designed for students, artists, researchers and other individuals seeking funds from foundations, corporations and grant-making public charities. Participants will preview and use the Foundation Center's online database, which provides information on more than 10,000 grant makers that support individual grant projects. Reservations are required; call Lorri Davis at 386-257-6036, ext. 16154.

ABCs of credit: 9 a.m. Wednesday, April 26. Heather Williamson and Bill Zirkelbach of Seacoast Bank will touch on the importance of managing credit, establishing credit, and improving your credit.

Identity theft: 3 p.m. Thursday, April 27. Nicholas Jefferson of Regions Bank will offer advice on protecting yourself from identity theft.

Children's programs:

These storytimes will help children learn how to count through a mix of books, songs and flannel stories:

- Preschool storytime: 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, April 26. This program is for ages 3 to 5.
- Toddler storytime: 10:30 a.m. Thursday, April 27. Children ages 18 months to 3 can take part in this program.
- Family storytime: 10:30 a.m. Saturday, April 29. All ages can attend this program, which will include a craft.

Volusia County Public Library

DeBary Public Library

200 N. Charles R. Beall Blvd. • 386-668-3835

Your money, your life: 4:30 p.m. Monday, April 24. Young adults can watch the video “Your money, your life: Empowering young adults to get their money right,” which addresses banking, credit, investing, budgeting, insurance and self-employment. Advice is from hip-hop artist Russell Simmons and personal finance experts.

Advice for small businesses: 5:30 p.m. Tuesday, April 25. Certified SCORE mentor David Shifflett will offer tips on starting your own small business. Topics will include planning, marketing and sustaining success. Registration is required; call 386-668-3835.

How do I get out of debt? 11 a.m. Thursday, April 27. Juan Matos, an education specialist with ClearPoint Credit Counseling Solutions, will explain how to make a plan of action for financial change. Registration is required; call 386-668-3835.

Children’s programs:

- Preschool storytime: 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, April 26. Children ages 3 to 5 and their caregivers will enjoy shopping stories and songs.
- Duct-tape wallet craft: 3 p.m. Thursday, April 27. Children in kindergarten through fifth grade will create a wallet from duct tape.

DeLand Regional Library

130 E. Howry Ave. • 386-822-6430

Wills and trusts: 10 a.m. Monday, April 24. DeLand Attorney Jeffrey Stark will explain how to secure your family’s future with a will and trusts.

Financial literacy: 2 p.m. Tuesday, April 25. Financial adviser David Holland will answer questions and discuss financial products and services, such as retirement income planning, estate planning, long-term care insurance products, and fixed annuities.

Budgeting workshop: 3 p.m. Friday, April 28. Josianne Saintil, a financial consultant from Arise to Impact, will explain how to budget, avoid common money mistakes, and create a financial plan.

Children’s programs:

- Interactive bulletin board: April 22 to 28. Kids from birth to age 12 can win prizes by taking part in this money and spending activity.
- Bilingual storytime: 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, April 26. Children ages 2 to 5 will learn Spanish terms for numbers, math and money with interactive songs, rhymes and stories.

- DIY coupon book: 3:30 p.m. Wednesday, April 26. Teens can make a coupon book for a friend or relative.
- Children's storytime: 10:30 a.m. Thursday, April 27. Children ages 2 to 5 and their caregivers can have fun with counting through stories, songs and a special craft.
- Duct-tape wallet craft: 4 p.m. Thursday, April 27. Children in grades K-5 can put their taping skills to the test.

Deltona Regional Library

2150 Eustace Ave. • 386-789-7207

“The Maltese Falcon”: 1 p.m. Saturday, April 22. This 1941 film noir follows a private detective as he and three unscrupulous adventurers compete to obtain a priceless, jewel-encrusted falcon statuette.

Grow your own fruits and vegetables: 2 p.m. Sunday, April 23. James Pescha will explain how to save money by growing your own food. He’ll give an overview of the Deltona Community Gardens in Vann Park, talk about available growing beds, and discuss the benefits of starting your own garden.

“The Money Pit”: 11 a.m. Monday, April 24. Tom Hanks and Shelley Long star in this 1986 film about a couple who buy the home of their dreams, only to find themselves with a financial nightmare.

Vacation on a shoestring: 10 a.m. Tuesday, April 25. Deborah Parker, assistant vice president of TD Bank, will offer tips to uncover great getaway deals that won’t blow your savings. Enter to win a summer vacation cooler filled with beach essentials.

Cheap eats: 2 p.m. Thursday, April 27. Karen Bagley, a personal chef and cooking instructor, will offer money-saving shopping tips and demonstrate how to prepare a few wallet-friendly dishes. Limited samples will be available.

Children’s programs:

- Toddler time: 10 a.m. Tuesday, April 25. Tots from 18 months to 3 years can learn to count with stories and songs.
- Crafternoon: 2:45 p.m. Tuesday, April 25. Students in grades K-5 can create a fully functioning bank.
- Preschool storytime: 10 a.m. Wednesday, April 26. Kids from age 3 to 5 can have fun with counting stories and songs.
- Life-size Monopoly: 2:45 p.m. Wednesday, April 26. Children in grades K-5 grade can try their luck at building a financial empire.
- Investments & ice cream: 4 p.m. Wednesday, April 26. Teens can learn about budgets, savings and investments while enjoying a treat.

Edgewater Public Library

103 W. Indian River Blvd. • 386-424-7207

Medicare 101: 5:30 p.m. Tuesday, April 25. This informational program will help seniors understand and evaluate their Medicare options.

Saving for your future: 5:30 p.m. Thursday, April 27. Learn the basic principles of building a financial future.

Children's program:

- Storytime: 10 a.m. Wednesday, April 26. Children ages 1 to 4 will use their counting skills with stories, songs and rhymes.

John H. Dickerson Heritage Library

411 S. Keech St., Daytona Beach • 386-239-6478

Stretching your budget: 3 p.m. Monday, April 24. Sara Levasseur, a program assistant with the University of Florida/ Volusia County Extension, will explain how to prepare nutritious meals on a budget.

Children's program:

- The Price is Right: 3:30 p.m. Wednesday, April 26. Children in elementary and middle school can compete for prizes in the library version of the TV game show.

Lake Helen Public Library

221 N. Euclid Ave. • 386-228-1152

Change-bank craft: 1:30 p.m. Wednesday, April 26. Adults can create a decorated change bank. Registration is required; call 386-228-1152.

Children's program:

- Family storytime: 10 a.m. Friday, April 28. Children from birth to 5 years and their caregivers will learn that counting is cool through stories and songs. A craft will follow.

New Smyrna Beach Regional Library

1001 S. Dixie Freeway • 386-424-2910

Social Security: 5:30 p.m. Monday, April 24. Taylor Blanca from the Orlando Social Security Office will explain the ins and outs of Social Security, its future, and what it means for you.

Don't get scammed! 2 p.m. Wednesday, April 26. Sgt. Mark Severance of the New Smyrna Beach Police Department will expose scams and frauds that target seniors. He'll also offer tips on avoiding con artists.

Gift cards: 10:30 a.m. Thursday, April 27. Learn how to find discount gift cards online and how to combine them with other coupons and savings.

Couponing: 2 p.m. Thursday, April 27. Couponers United will explain how to save up to 90 percent each week on your grocery bill. Topics will include where to find coupons, how to maximize savings by stacking coupons, local store policies, and easy organizational tips.

Timelord economics: 4 p.m. Thursday, April 27. Travel back in time to discover how money was used in the past, beginning with the barter system, followed by Old West trading, and on to the present day and balancing a checkbook. Participants can create a "barter bracelet."

Children's programs:

- Preschool storytime: 10 a.m. Tuesday, April 25. Stories and songs will be used to teach numbers and counting to children from 18 months to 5 years.
- Lego Club: 3:30 p.m. Tuesday, April 25. Students in grades one through five will incorporate counting into their Lego creations, which will be displayed in the library.
- Bounce the baby: 10 a.m. Wednesday, April 26. Babies up to 18 months will be introduced to numbers in this early literacy program.
- Art fun: 3 p.m. Wednesday, April 26. Students in grades one through five will create "barter bracelets." A discussion will address the barter system and patterning.
- Listen up: 10 a.m. Thursday, April 27. Staff will use books and music that incorporate numbers, counting and patterns for this program geared toward ages 18 months to 5 years.
- Shake it up: 10:30 a.m. Thursday, April 27. Music with a numbered theme will be used in this action program using a balance beam, bean-bags and more for ages 18 months to 5 years.

Orange City Public Library

148 Albertus Way • 386-775-5270

Children's program:

Craft and a story: 3 p.m. Thursday, April 27. Children ages 3 to 12 and their caregivers can create a treasure chest and listen to a story about treasures.

Ormond Beach Regional Library

30 S. Beach St. • 386-676-4191

Protect yourself from identity theft: 2 p.m. Monday, April 24. A representative from Regions Bank will offer tips on keeping your information safe online.

Financial Q-and-A: 2 p.m. Thursday, April 27. Financial adviser, radio show host and newspaper columnist David Holland will answer financial questions.

Reverse mortgage and retirement: 2 p.m. Friday, April 28. Learn how a reverse mortgage can help you meet your retirement needs and goals. Mike Peerless of Holland

Mortgage Services will explain how it works.

Children's programs:

- Wiggly walkers storytime: 10 a.m. Tuesday, April 25; and 10 a.m. Wednesday, April 26. Babies who are just beginning to walk up to 24 months will be introduced to counting through music, stories, rhymes, flannel boards, puppets, and rhythm and sensory activities.
- Toddler time: 11 a.m. Tuesday, April 25; and 9:30 a.m. Thursday, April 27. Two-year-olds will enjoy counting stories, songs, rhymes and other age-appropriate activities.
- Baby and me storytime: 11 a.m. Wednesday April 26. Babies who are just beginning to walk up to 24 months can take part in counting rhymes and rhythms, music, books and sensory activities along with some bouncing, clapping, rocking, lift-the-baby fun.
- Money facts: 3 p.m. Wednesday, April 26. Kids in grades K-5 can learn about coin collecting and other money facts, including the history of money, how money is minted, how to save money, and more.
- Preschool storytime: 11 a.m. Thursday, April 27. Children ages 3 to 5 can participate in counting stories and sing-alongs with Miss Susan's ukulele, puppets, action rhymes, an interactive flannel board activity, and a counting craft. They can also sort pennies, nickels, dimes and quarters and match the real coins with pictures of coins.

Pierson Public Regional Library

115 N. Volusia Ave. • 386-749-6930

Children's program:

Bank craft: 3:30 p.m. Tuesday, April 25. Children in grades K-5 can make a personalized coffee can bank.

Port Orange Regional Library

1005 City Center Circle • 386-322-5152

Save money and improve your health: Noon Monday, April 24. Lisa Hamilton of the University of Florida/Volusia County Extension will offer tips to improve your health while saving money. Her presentation will include water and carbonated beverage taste tests with the idea that you can stop buying bottled water and make your own carbonated drinks.

Financial planning basics: 2 p.m. Tuesday, April 25. Certified Financial Planner Scott Weidman will present information that will help you plan for college, retirement and other life events.

Steps to success: 2 p.m. Thursday, April 27. Todd Elders of Florida Financial Group will share tips to make your money work smarter and harder for you. Topics will include estimating the amount of insurance you need, the true cost of credit-card debt, and three critical components of a sound investment plan.

A great business plan in six easy steps: 2 p.m. Friday, April 28. SCORE representative Jack Phifer will explain how businesses can create a sound business plan during this two-hour workshop.

Children's programs:

- Toddler storytime: 10 a.m. Tuesday, April 25. Two- and three-year-olds can learn how to be smart money users through stories, songs and other activities. Movement time will follow at 10:30 a.m.
- Design a dollar bill: 4 p.m. Tuesday, April 25. Middle and high school students can be a part of a contest to design the most creative dollar bill.
- Preschool storytime: 10 a.m. Wednesday, April 26. Children ages 3 to 5 can learn how to shop and save through stories, songs and other activities. Movement time follows at 10:45 a.m.
- Art club: 3 p.m. Wednesday, April 26. Students in kindergarten through fifth grade will design their own money.
- Mother Goose storytime: 9:45 a.m. Thursday, April 27. Babies in laps will learn about smart money use through songs and stories about money and counting.
- Tiny tots storytime: 10:30 a.m. Thursday, April 27. Walkers up to 2-year-olds can take part in songs and stories about money and counting.
- Duct-tape purse or wallet: 4 p.m. Thursday, April 27. Middle and high school students can make crafts to hold their money.
- Craft Saturday: All day April 29. Families can make a money smart craft in the children's room.